

Congressman Larson with 2008 Winner Elizabeth Renstrom (Hartford, CT) of the Connecticut International Baccalaureate Academy

U.S. Congressman John B. Larson (CT-01) is pleased to announce that the 29th Annual Congressional Arts Competition will take place on Thursday, April 1, 2010, from 5:00pm to 7:00pm at the Wadsworth Atheneum in Hartford, CT. The competition gives students an opportunity to enter their artwork to receive a $6,000 scholarship to the prestigious Savannah College of Art and Design, and will have their work displayed within the U.S. Capitol for the entire year of the exhibition.

Congressman Larson has sent letters to the Art Directors in every First Congressional District high school encouraging their students to participate. The competition is open to high school students only, however exceptions will be made for schools that have 7th through 12th grades on one campus. Artwork must be matted and does not need to be framed.

Students interested in participating in the Congressional Arts Competition, must deliver artwork for submissions to Congressman Larson's District Office at 221 Main Street, 2nd Floor in Hartford on March 29
